

INDO-CHINA

the French tie they sided with the the in the of peace. Their great is the requisitioned for public had also exacted by
the
and are the preliminary to penetrating
the Northern yet the tribes its legal use and
Its
The scattered at best, is due to the of and foreign diseases.
All
the character of 10 upon tribes*
The primitive of the Amiamite Range, loosely grouped
the of Mois, are well in the North.
They
are differ
to the to environment has influenced of are Three great Mol tribes live on the Of the are the civilized and ia-
; the Jftrai, the bellicose. The live far from each other ia The ctf is a mystery, They have BO no no They as a buffer
the
has the important single
in The served -as a for
tie
to the of war. After pertte more to the
the tribes. All the Mois did not accept
The for were
to the to this
the to The
of were yet tb&
the is in their and
the of tad if
to be oac of
in the of the If the a whole of rivalry up a
of as the

at all.
by 3%

»

the
to

by
of the soil

and
to
com tod rice